Wilcox Cast In Lead of Initial Play

Norman Wilcox has been cast as Harry Domin, general manager of Rossum's Universal Robots, in the year's first drama production, Karel Capek's R.U.R., according to Dr. Ralph E. Fulsom, director.

Jane Fleskes will play Helena Glory, the leading female character.

Other members of the cast include Carolyn Enis as Sulla, a Robotess; Kenneth Price as Marius, a Robot; Gary McQueen as Dr. Gall, head of the Physiological and Experimental Department of R.U.R.; David Shestak as Mr. Fabry, engineer and General Technical Controller of R.U.R.; Jeffrey Falter as Dr. Hallemeier, head of the Institute for Psychological Training of Robots; Don Stephens as Mr. Alquist, architect and head of the Works Department of R.U.R.

Daniel McLaughlin, Consul Busman, general manager of R.U.R.; Eddilea Roe, Nana; James Stanfield, Radius, a Robot; Mary Sue Edgerton, Helena, a Robotess; and Richard Moore, Primus, a Robot. R.U.R. will be staged November 21 and 22.

59 Pledge Sororties In Fall Rush

Fifty nine coeds accepted bids to pledge the four MSC sororties at the close of rush week last Friday, according to Dean of Women Gimmie Atchley.

Alpha Sigma Alpha has the largest pledge class with 17. Sigma Sigma Sigma has 15, Delta Zeta 14, and Phi Mu 13. None of the sororties reached their quota of 50 members.

Those pledging Phi Mu are Debbie Davis, Donna Doolan, Sharon Engle, Elaine Hill, Marge MacDonald, Carolyn Martin, Mary Jane Pennington, Patricia Sanderson, Patsy

Eight MSC Students To Ill. Speech Contest

Eight MSC students will compete in an individual tournament Oct. 12, at Western Illinois University, Macomb, Ill.

Making the trip will be Kathy Johnson, Susan McConkey, Joleene Larimore, Norma Buffinton, Ann Shamberger, Patricia Lininger, Stuart Robertson, and Bob Cotter. Competition events will include radio newscasting, oral interpretation of prose, oral interpretation of poetry, extemporaneous speaking and oratory.

Mr. George Hinshaw, director of forensics, and Mrs. Martha Dunn, teaching assistant in speech, will accompany the group.

Frosh Chosen Queen

Miss Marlene Kelly, a freshman from Kansas City, Mo., was chosen queen of the Harvest Moon Ball at the dance last Saturday night.

Harvest Moon Ball

Miss Kelly was chosen for her appearance and her ability to dance. She was escorted by Gene Ross from Rockwell City, Ia.

More than 400 people attended the Ball sponsored by the Associated Women Students, according to Miss Judy Huitt, social chairman. The Blue Room, in which the dance was held, was decorated with autumn harvest objects and a horn-of-plenty filled with pumpkins.

Foods Group Confers With Administrators

The Foods Committee, composed of Millie Cockrill, Bob Crawford, and Bob Cotter, met with cafeteria and Student Union administrators for the first time last week.

Four major areas were covered in the meeting.

Lines, especially the south line to the Blue Room, are being adjusted so that approximately 500 students go through each line. Cotter suggested that students discourage crowding in by stepping in front of the crowder.

3000 Plan to Attend 46th Annual Teachers Meeting Thursday-Friday

More than 3,000 elementary and secondary school teachers and administrators are expected at MSC this week for the two-day Northwest Missouri Teachers Association meeting.

Classes Dismissed

All college classes will be dismissed Oct. 10-11 for the meeting.

Featured Speakers

Dr. Walter Judd

Miss Barbara Holliday

Dr. Nicholas Nyardi

After welcoming speeches Thursday morning by Mr. Kent Barber, association president from Plattsburg, Mo., and Dr. J. W. Jones, MSC president, the group will hear talks by outstanding public and professional people about various phases of education.

Five featured speakers and a number of other people will address general and departmental sessions of the meeting. Dr. Walter Judd, a former United States Congressman, will address the Thursday morning general session on "Education for America's Role in Today's World." Mr. Everett Keith, executive secretary of the Missouri Teachers Association will also address the session on the topic "Working Together."

Speaking to the Elementary Education Teachers section Thursday afternoon will be Mrs. Natalie Cole, author of The Arts in the Classroom.

A special program of the Gen. Platoff Don Cossack Chorus and dancers will be presented Thursday night at 8:15 p.m. in the Gymnasium.

The group will sing Russian folk and love songs as well as a group of English numbers. Authentic dances, done many years ago by Czarist Russians, will be performed by the troupe. Association members will be admitted by membership card. MSC students will be admitted free with college identification.

"Building a Teaching Profession" will be the subject for the Friday morning general assembly address by Dr. Arthur Corey. Dr. Corey is executive secretary of the California Teachers Association. Miss Barbara Holliday, a writer and news correspondent of the Detroit Free Press, will speak to the Elementary and Secondary departments Friday morning following the general assembly. Her subject will be "The Ways and Means of the John Birch Society."

Friday afternoon, Dr. Nicholas Nyardi, director of the School of International Studies, Bradley University, and former Hungarian Minister of Finance, will address the third general session on "American Education at the Crossroads."

The Knights of the Hickory Stick and secondary school administrators will meet at the Methodist Church Thursday evening.

Preps to Sing At MSC on Walkout Day

The Four Preps will bring their musical talents to MSC on Walkout Day for a 2½ hour afternoon concert, according to Rich Schmitz, Union Board Chairman.

Busy Day Planned

Performing at 2 p.m. in the Lamkin Gymnasium, the nationally-known quartet will come in the middle of a busy day for the student body of MSC planned by the Student Senate and the Union Board.

On W-Day, the Victory Bell will ring at 8:15 a.m. to end classes for the day and to begin the fun. Led by a band, students will parade, snake-dance, or just plain walk to the square in downtown Maryville for a pep rally complete with speeches by Coach Schotel and the team tri-captains.

From there the action will shift to Beal Park, on the eastern edge of town, where games, contests, and bean-bag tosses will be held for those with an active bent. Before lunch, a picnic served on the premises a hootenanny or some reasonable facsimile thereof, will be held to pick a contestant for the Inter-University Hootenanny in Kansas City Nov. 9.

Entries for the hootenanny must be submitted to Mrs. Terry Kremer in the Business Office before 4 p.m. today.

The cafeteria will not be open at noon but charcoal braziers will be set up in the park to cook (don't get your hopes up) hamburgers. Meal tickets or $.75 will get you two hamburgers with all the picnic trimmings.

Dance in Evening

For those not esthetically satisfied with the morning song-fest, the afternoon concert by the Four Preps should be more enjoyable. And then, in the evening, for those still able to walk for one reason or another,

Committee Requests Brief Descriptions Of Skits, Displays

Organizations submitting entries for the variety show, parade, yard displays must send brief descriptions of their entries to Dr. John Harr, faculty sponsor, by Friday. These descriptions are for the judges to use.

According to Mr. Earle Moss, thirty-five bands have entered the parade. These bands will perform a pre-game show in mass band formation. There a K.C. band will provide live (and they say good) music for the Walkout Day Dance held in the gymnasium from 8 to 12.

Fine and dandy. Question is WHEN?

According to page 593 of the book of black magic stolen from the secret archives high in one of the Towers, the most accurate way to predict W-Day is to take the number of women students, divide by the total number of steps in the AD Building, subtract the number of shopping days from now until Christmas, divide by either three or five according to the phase of the moon, and then ask the student body proxy if he plans to study for that test next Wednesday.

AAUW to Study India In Local Program

"Through our study program, we hope to gain a better understanding of world problems."

Such was the statement made by Mrs. Max Brown about the new national program of the American Association of University Women.

The program, which is an occidental and oriental study, is concentrated on India. The next meeting will be held Oct. 17. Dr. H. G. Dildine, a former MSC professor, will speak on religion in India.

The first meeting was held Sept. 12 and included reports of the National Convention and a panel discussion of the values derived from the French Experiment in International Living students who spent six weeks in Maryville last summer.

The AAUW is available to female graduates of approved colleges and universities. Its main purpose is to promote graduate work and to offer scholarships to outstanding graduate students.

Merit Scholarships

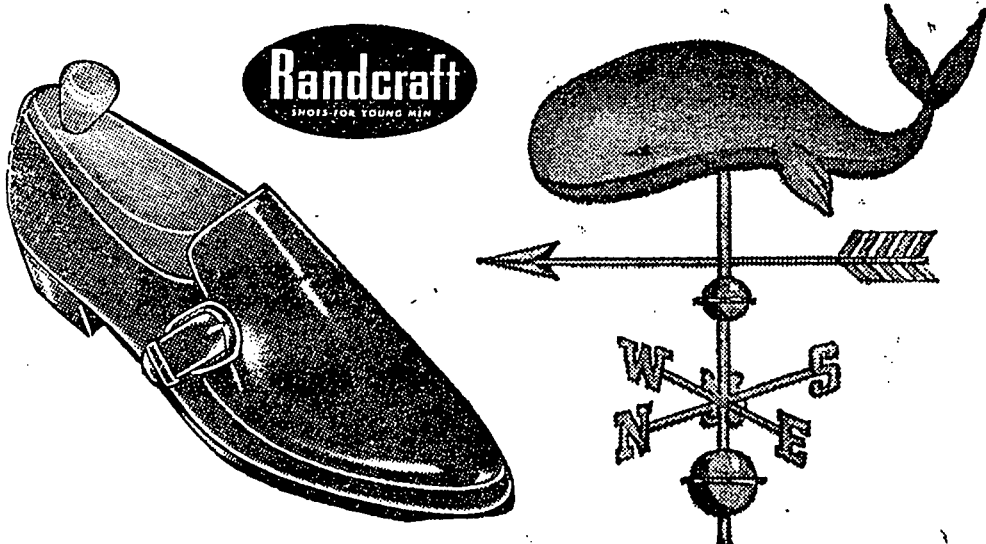

Students who are attending MSC on Merit Scholarships are urged to fill out forms for next semester in the Dean of Student's office.

A deadline date, Dec. 31, 1963, has been set for completing this action, but students have been asked by Dean C. E. Koerble to do so before this date. Compliance with this request will insure the student better chances of obtaining his scholarship as well as avoiding confusion in Dean Koerble's office.

Fraternities--- Coming in Or Going Out?

CON

(ACP)—Fraternities are subversive, says THE TULANE HULLABALOO, Tulane University, New Orleans, La.

In an editorial, THE HULLABALOO says:

The word "subvert" comes from the Latin root "subvertere" meaning to turn upside down. Fraternities on the Tulane campus have turned the truth upside down and show the resulting distortion to entering freshmen.

Fraternity rushees, on arriving at Tulane, are shown a subverted picture of the social life on campus and in the city. During the rush period, all they see are fraternity men and fraternity parties. They have no opportunity to observe the campus social life before they have to make a decision. The result is that most rushees believe the only social life is a fraternity one. This is not true.

As with any sales company, fraternities do not show the defects of the product to the prospective buyer. The freshman discovers the imperfections after he has pledged, and that is often too late.

The solution to this subversion or turning over of the truth is a second semester rush program. But that would kill fraternities on this campus. Freshmen would realize the uselessness of a fraternity, and few would join.

PRO

(ACP)—Much of the leadership on college campuses comes from the ranks of the Greeks, according to the NEWS RECORD, University of Cincinnati, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The NEWS RECORD says in an editorial:

This is because the Greeks have a desire to improve themselves and their prestige. In addition, the Greeks are one of the few groups on campus who have the organization to implement effective campus-wide programs.

Charges of unfairness, bigotry and prejudice are unfounded.

ed. And if a person allows himself to be upset and hurt because of his non-acceptance into a fraternity, it is his fault, not the fault of the system.

Art Faculty Display Works in St. Joseph

MSC's Art Department was represented by several entries in the St. Joseph Area 3rd Annual Fall Arts Festival which was held Oct. 5 and 6 in the Civic Center Area of the St. Joseph City Hall.

Robert Sunkel, acting chairman of the Fine Arts Department, exhibited "Mother and Child," a wood sculpture in walnut; "Aboriginal Ritual," a painting in lacquer with sawdust; "Citadel No. 3" and "Red Landscape," oil paintings; and "Red Landscape," oil paintings; and "Two Shacks," a woodblock print.

Three oil paintings were shown by Donald Robertson, MSC instructor in fine arts. The paintings were "The 'Coon Hunt,'" "And the Truth Shall Make You Free," and "Still Life."

Darrell McGinness, also an art instructor at MSC, displayed several handbuilt and wheel-thrown ceramic forms. Mrs. Virginia Hillix, library assistant and recent student of the fine arts department, sent a series of drawing to the show.

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Suitcasing (Part IV)

The Homing Pidgeons

Each year throughout the campus the eternal question is posed among faculty members and organization officers, "Why do we have so many suitcase students?" Such a problem makes campus week-end activities difficult at certain times, and nearly impossible at others.

After talking with several suitcase students this past week, I have discovered a few reasons that sound very valid on the surface.

One of the main reasons found for students going home is that one gets tired of being just a member of the masses and having to stand in line for everything.

Another frequent reason for packing up is the existence of a favorite girl or fiancée in the old home town.

Still another reason for being a homing pidgeon is termed "more freedom." "Rules and regulations to follow daily at school can get to be somewhat of a pest," stated one student.

One must, however, go into these reasons just a little deeper than the surface.

Why be just a member of the masses? Why not make a name and a place for yourself right here on campus? Why be miserable all week long so you can live it up on the week-ends? Lines aren't the best thing in the world, but you'll have to agree that since they can't be avoided and you have several friends around to talk to and laugh with, they aren't half bad.

A boy friend or girl friend to run to is fine, but what about all week long? If you have a steady or fiancée, why run home to them? Why not show them campus life?

As for rules and regulations, the campus doesn't have them just for the fun of it! They are here for the express purpose of getting the student through school. Besides, what kind of freedom is it that ties you to your home town?

If you are a student with homing instinct, I sincerely hope that you will analyze your reasoning thoroughly. After all, the campus is here for your pleasure as well as for your education.

(ACP)—THE ECHO, student newspaper of Arkansas State Teachers College, Conway, Ark., suggests that any college student could pass this test:

1. Name eight brands of beer. Double credit will be given for foreign brands.
2. Mr. is a bald-headed man who can clean your house and everything that's in it.
3. What rock 'n' roll group played "Charlie Brown?"
4. What is the recipe for "Purple Passion?"
5. What newspaper does Clark Kent work for? Has he any other outstanding accomplishments to his credit?
6. Complete the following quotation: Do not pass....., do not collect dollars.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"NAW-HE ISN'T TH' COACH! HE PASSED TH' ENTIRE BACKFIELD ON AN ENGLISH EXAM JUST BEFORE TH' GAME."

Returning to school is happiness except for registration. So your old stroller decided to give the line two weeks to filter through. Beginning two weeks late is no problem if you never catch up anyway, she thought foggily.

If you remember, your flat-footed wanderer forgot his finals for a foggy den finale. Then it was off with the wild ones for a series of 18-hour work days. Summer was wonderful, making money for the bank, the loan agency, the government, the stomach, the bank, and there must have been something else. But he thought—just one look at the women's dorms—full—will vanish the pangs of work. But what happened to alma mater?

The city streets are as expected, except now progress has them impassable. And progress has filled the campus so full of freshmen that you really can't tell them from the people. A freshman is to a senior as an acorn is to an oak, said one hopeful-of-graduating. But your old stroller holds no ill opinion of anyone. Notice the new e. e. cummings type modesty.

Another note of progress: The college pond has replaced wide ties as a topic of idle conversation. Of course this is like comparing the world series to Stan Musial—one is just an occasional flash in the pan. Don't ask which is the annual autumn flash, unless you're a Mets fan. But back to the old lake, which now resembles a small duck marsh. Several wags (they may have been either wigs or dye-jobs, you never dare ask) have suggested that while the water was down that a small castle should have been built in the center. Rumor should finish that line of thought. And several others.

Progress is inescapable. They demanded your old stroller's Social Security number, but work is a disease and she has been happily healthy. Good student ID's are fine but—it it comes to this—EVERYBODY refuses to be finger-

The Book Shelf

Nobody Knows My Name by James Baldwin, Dial Press, 241pp., $4.50.

James Baldwin is a Negro and a writer, and a person can be neither without realizing it at all times. The question 'I am frequently asked about this book of essays: Is it about integration? can have only one answer. Since the man's entire life is affected by this factor of coloration to ignore it would be hypocrisy.

Baldwin reveals an extreme perceptivity in his examination of the crucial bases of this problem of the Negro's relation to the white. The first essay tells of his personal development toward himself to being a Negro—from early rejection of anything corresponding to the whites' stereotype of his race and physical escape to a tolerant country, France, to the unashamed re-creation of his early life in his first novel, Go Tell It in the Mountain.

The title refers to the fact that the white does not know the Negro, and Baldwin goes on to state that until he does he cannot know himself. He must first establish, examine, and justify his relationship to the Negro before the self-knowledge that makes possible achievement is realized. Nobody Knows My Name enables one to better know Mr. Baldwin's name, and thus, better know his own. —tim johnson

Miss Hunter Takes Trip to Europe

Miss Violette Hunter, member of the English department, traveled in Europe during August and the first part of September.

Among the countries she visited were Austria, England, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Liechtenstein, and Switzerland.

Miss Hunter sailed from New York to Naples on the Italian flagship, the Leonardo da Vinci, and returned from Amsterdam on a KLM Royal Dutch jet. In Europe she traveled by car and by plane, seeing rural areas as well as things of interest in other cities. She visited Salzburg, Pompeii, Pisa, Rome, Venice, Florence, Innsbruck, Munich, Zurich, Lucerne, Geneva, Paris, Chartres, London, and Stratford-upon-Avon.

Library Addition Work Begun by Glaze Const. Co.

by Joan Mann

Construction on the $500,000 addition to Wells Library is now underway. Because of immediate planning by the Board of Regents, MSC is well ahead of all other state schools in its work toward a library addition.

Contract to Glaze

The contract has been let to the Glaze Construction Company of St. Joseph. The architect is Raymond C. Herschman of Herschman and Douglas, a St. Joseph firm.

The addition, which should be completed in ten months, will add as much space as the present library now has for a building with facilities for an enrollment of 5,000. The building will have thirty feet added to each end and twenty feet added to the back, plus filling in the corners. Most of the work, which includes redecorating of the old section, will be completed at one time; but several extra conveniences are planned for later construction.

Textbook Room Enlarged

The new space on the bottom level will include a large textbook room, which will be less congested than the present one because of a pass-through, an audio-visual classroom seating about 100, and the first level of stacks. The five new levels of stacks, placed on a separate foundation, will be a part of the later work.

The main floor will have a new reserve reading room, with periodicals, bound magazines, and microfilm, more stacks, and a record listening room. The Instructional Materials Bureau, also on the main floor, will have curriculum labs, materials production and audio-visual storage and service.

Reading Area Doubled

Two large reading rooms on either end of the building with carrels, or study booths, will be added to the top level. Reading room space will be doubled.

The construction company hopes to have the outer walls of the new addition completed before cold weather. Work can then be continued all winter long.

Mr. James Johnson, librarian, said, "There will be some inconveniences that we will regret during construction." But, everyone, even the seniors who will not get to use the new addition, can surely bear with the noise and confusion if it will appear next year in the shape of an expanded library, a distinct asset to MSC.

A meal ticket entitles a student to the following at lunch and supper meals: Meat or a meat substitute, potatoes, choice of a vegetable, choice of a salad, choice of a dessert, and a drink. He should take only one salad, vegetable, and dessert.

The cafeteria should not run out of any food although they can only estimate the number of people who will eat there. A substitute, equal in value to the menu item will be kept on reserve for emergencies.

Feeding about 1,900 students for an average of $.44 per meal, the cafeteria personnel must calculate the number of meals they will serve very closely in order that the cost to the student will remain low.

Bearcat Rally Upsets Wesleyan Bid, 13-6

The MSC Bearcats upset the previously undefeated Nebraska Wesleyan Plainsmen, 13-6, Friday night in Lincoln, rallying from a 6-0 halftime deficit.

The victory boosted the 'Cats' record over the .500 mark and stopped Wesleyan's three winning streak. MSC is now 2-1-1 for the season.

The winning margin was supplied by halfback Lonnie Irvin on a 10-yard sweep, plus the conversion by running-mate Mike Peterson. The score came with 4:59 remaining in the third quarter.

Wesleyan Scores

The Nebraskans' lone TD came early in the contest on a spectacular 73-yard punt return by Rick Whitham. The play developed with MSC punting to the Plainsmen with approximately three minutes gone in the game. The speedy Whitham grabbed the ball and streaked for the score. The extra-point attempt failed.

The 'Cats battled back defensively for the remainder of the first half, holding Wesleyan scoreless. The Plainsmen also proved to be tough defensively in the initial half, leaving the field at intermission with the 6-0 lead.

'Cats Explode

The locals came back fired-up, kicked off to Wesleyan, gained possession on downs, and started a 70-yard drive to paydirt.

Mike Peterson, Lonnie Irvin, Hal Wittbrodt, and Mick Thompson took advantage of a tremendous effort by the 'Cat offensive line charge, tearing off yardage in chunks. Coach Ivan Schottel's charges drove for three quick first downs, before being faced with a fourth and three situation.

Quarterback Leo Papas sent Mario Balletti wide around left end and the junior halfback responded with a four-yard advance. Prior to this series of downs, Papas fired a 25-yard strike to Irvin, moving the Bearcats deep into Nebraska territory.

Irvin then went wide around the other end for the game-tying TD. Peterson booted the PAT.

Maryville threatened again, moving to the Nebraska 10-yard marker, but a fumble gave the ball to Wesleyan. The 'Cat defense again took over, with linebacker Darrell Cotter intercepting a pass and returning it for 15 yards.

Wittbrodt then cracked over tackle from 11 yards away for the score. The PAT was narrowly missed as a Plainsman barely touched the ball on the kick.

Wesleyan then went to their passing game but to no avail as the Bearcats put on a constant rush, blitzing through to hurry the Nebraska thrower.

Line coach Robert Gregory credited MSC's blue-team, the second unit, for a major share of the win. The alternating unit lifted the 'Cats to their feet after the early Wesleyan score, enabling the offensive attack to take over in the final half.

'Cats to Test MIAA Foe Springfield

"We should be as strong if not stronger than last year."

This was the forecast of the Springfield Bears coach, Orville Pottenger, on the Bears '63 gridiron outlook. The MSC Bearcats will be keeping this statement in mind Saturday when they host the Bears at Memorial Stadium, 8:00 p.m.

A potent running attack and a rock-hard defense is helping Coach Pottenger live up to his pre-season prediction. In the Bears first three contests this season, they held their opponents to one touchdown. In the Bears' third game they upset major college, Drake University, 13-6.

Phi Lambs Take Lead In Intramural Tennis

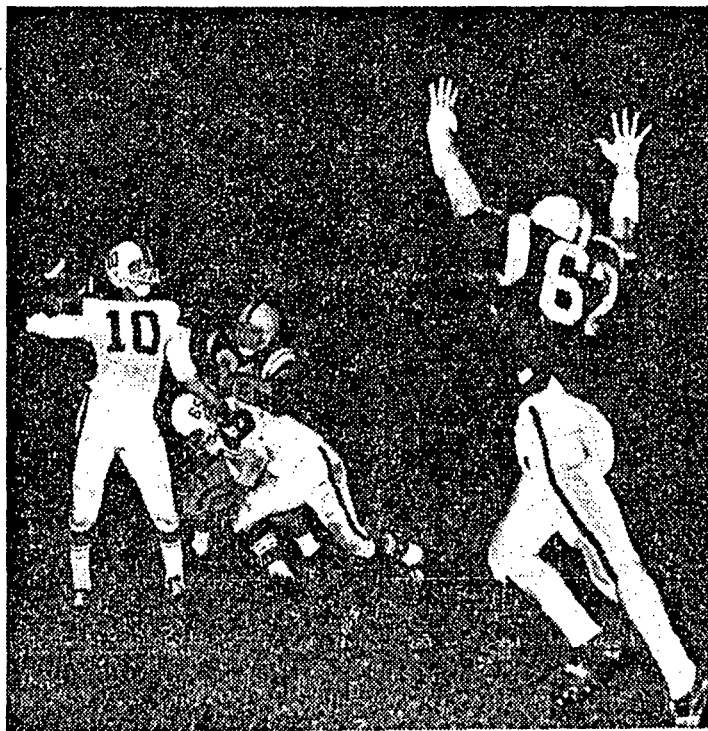

Rex Pettegrew, student intramural director, reports that a record 131 men, compared to last year's 83, participating in this year's, intramural tennis program.

First round results are:

Phi Lambs, 66 pts., Phi Sigs, 56 pts., Sig Taus, 50 pts., TKE, 47 pts., AKL, 18 pts., Ind., 19 pts.

CRUNCH!!—Mike Peterson, MSC fullback-halfback, bowls over a Nebraska Wesleyan linebacker. Peterson regained his balance and went on for a 16-yard advance, picking up a first-down. The action occurred just after the Bearcats started their 70-yard touchdown drive early in the third quarter. (Photo by Ware)

GET READY, LONNIE—Bearcat quarterback Leo Papas spots halfback Lonnie Irvin on the loose downfield just before connecting with a 25-yard strike, good for a first-and-ten, deep in Nebraska Wesleyan territory. The play set the stage for Irvin's tie-making TD only a few plays later. An unidentified Bearcat lineman throws a block on a Wesleyan rusher in the background. (Photo by Ware)

Cat Tales...

— with Marv Bell

The Fighting Bearcats' first MIAA test will be Saturday night right here in Memorial Stadium against the powerful Springfield Bears, a squad of hard-nosed individuals with just one goal for the season, to capture the MIAA Championship.

The Bears were pre-season choices by MIAA sports-writers to finish third behind Cape Girardeau and Kirksville. However, the Bears haven't paid much attention to those predictions thus far.

The high-powered Spring-

Leading the Springfield line are All-MIAA guard, Eldo Perry, an All-MIAA tackle, Rich Johannmeier. Holding down the end of the line will be end Jerry Boyer.

Leading the backfield will be sprinter Cornelius Perry. Also expected to see action will be Ed Willard, a kick-off return specialist. Willard returned a kick-off 90 yards against Emporia State in leading the Bears to a 14-0 victory.

This formidable defense of the Bears has held Pittsburg State and Emporia scoreless while the fast moving offense rolled to 35 points. The Bears stunned MSC 33-0 last year.

Every year youths spend in high school can be worth an average of $17,500 to each of them. A full four years can be worth $70,000. That is how much extra they will earn on an average over their working lives by going to school, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

field attack has mowed four foes down with ease, while looking like the league's kingpins. While Cape and Kirksville have taken their lumps a couple of times this year, Springfield seems to get stronger with each game.

The highlight so far for the Bears has been a 13-6 upset win over Drake University, a Missouri Valley Conference member, and a major college to boot. Coach Orville Pottenger sounded quite optimistic when he predicted that his Bears would be stronger than last year.

Since Springfield walloped the 'Cats 33-0 last year and held MSC to a meager one yard rushing for the entire contest, Coach Ivan Schottel's Bearcats will have to be fired to the brim if they are to pull another upset like last week's thriller in Nebraska.

Memorial Stadium seats 4,000 fans and the MSC campus can provide approximately 3,000 of the capacity. Off-campus attendance will figure 1,000 fans or better, so let's support our Fighting Bearcats to the hilt.

The Bearcats haven't let us down. Let's not let them down in their effort to sidetrack Springfield and start their own quest for the long-absent MIAA football crown.
